Bucherer Pianos The four laws are four steps Bill Bright has found in the New Testament Bible. You can also have it in French:<http://www.4laws.com/laws/french/default.htm> - These steps show you how you can be certain to get to heaven by accepting Christ in your

Pianos <http://buchererpianos.ch/halbesHerz.jpg><http://www.bibleserver.com/text/KJV/Mark4,15> - This vers is not found in modern Bible translations. It says: "And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts." - Hearts is missing in them. But Jesus said: "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." The "door" is the door to our heart. "into him" is the word modern translations use a lot for heart: "...Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them." NIV: <http://www.bibleserver.com/text/NIV/Mark4> - So, modern Bible translators think, that the heart (which is missing in old Bible manuscripts, according to them) has been replaced by "into them". So, "into them" is our "heart". Nobody in this world would think of a human heart. Everybody know the picture language, that it means our inner beeing. The Jesus-beeing has to match our inner beeing. And beeing in Hebrew is YHWH (God). We are called Gods somewhere in the Psalms "I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High." Ps. 82:6 - Matthew Henry comments on that passage: "It is hard for men to have honour put upon them, and not to be proud of it. But all the rulers of the earth shall die, and all their honour shall be laid in the dust. God governs the world. There is a righteous God to whom we may go, and on whom we may depend. This also has respect to the kingdom of the Messiah. Considering the state of affairs in the world, we have need to pray that the Lord Jesus would speedily rule over all nations, in truth, righteousness, and peace." The meaning is not that we are real Gods, but the area of meaning by Gods (Elohim in Hebrew) is, that we are

Bucherer Pianos ...that we are "divine ones", "magistrates", "mighty judges". But if our heart is empty, we are prone to die. Therefore it goes on in the biblical text: " But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes." - So, because we all die, Christ has done the utmost for us, died as a sacrifice for us, went to the grave/hell and proclaimed the gospel (good news), that would free the prisoners in the lowest places: "6 For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does." according to ESV! You can check in KJV: euaggelizō kai nekros (evangelisation to the dead). So, if Jesus would evangelize to the dead on whom God had Grace "The times of ignorance God overlooked"<http://www.bibleserver.com/text/ESV/Acts17:30>, if those in the grave, even before the flood ὃ καὶ τοῖς ἐν φυλακῇ πνεύμασιν πορευθεὶς ἐκήρυξεν (made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed (Or preached) to the spirits in prison. (the great deluge is a picture of that earthwide elimination of human beings), he says: accept Jesus into your heart, into your inner being, you who are mighty mortal ones! Accept Christ before it is too late! "Baptism (which Peter says), which corresponds to this (death), now saves you! Imagine how Jean Michel was depicted in a film baptizing people in white robes! The knelt on their knees first to accept Christ into their hearts and upon this testimony were baptized in the name of God the Vater, Sohn and Holy Ghost! "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in(to) the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." So, no NWO, no Illuminate, no Free Mason can hold us up to accept the Messiah as God and LORD (Adonai) in our lives/hearts/inner beings!<http://www.bibleserver.com/text/ESV/Matthew28,18-20>

Jean Michel Cravanzola ok tu ne peux utiliser un seul verset de la bible meme Matthieu comme confirmation que le BAPTEME soit fait au NOM (singulier entre paratese non pluriel) Pourquoi ? Parce que la doctrine de la trinite a etait mise en place 1ue 320 ans apres les apotres par la denomination apostate appellait le catholiisme c est d ailleur a cause du St Esprit que les orthodoxses se sont separees de la denomination catholique et beaucoup de gens ont ete burles

(Muchel Servet et un exemple TU NE PEUX par un seul verset de tout le nouveau testament un bapteme fait au NOM (singuliera du pere du fils et du st esprit cela ne peut exister puiaque la trinite n etait prononcee ce fut un invention des mauvais esprits quii ont tortue le sens meme du bapteme

Bucherer Pianos I don't believe in bad spirits at work in this formula. Jesus and the father are one and the share the same spirit. All the old Greek Bibles have the same wording: THE HOLY BIBLE Combined Greek THE HOLY BIBLE Alexandrian THE HOLY BIBLE Byzantine Majority THE HOLY BIBLE Scrivner 1894 THE HOLY BIBLE Stephens 1550 LA BIBLE SAINTE Louis Segond:"Allez, faites de toutes les nations des disciples, les baptisant au nom du Père, du Fils et du Saint Esprit". And old versions also have like KJV, have: For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
8And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

Pianos Compare:http://awmach.org/bibles/parallel_display,https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Comma_Johanneum,http://www.bibleserver.com/text/KJV/1%20John5:7-8. The commentary of Jamieson Fausset Brown says: "the earliest Vulgate manuscript which has them being Wizanburgensis, 99, of the eighth century. A scholium quoted in Matthæi, shows that the words did not arise from fraud; for in the words, in all Greek manuscripts "there are three that bear record," as the Scholiast notices, the word "three" is masculine, because the three things (the Spirit, the water, and the blood) are SYMBOLS OF THE TRINITY. To this CYPRIAN, 196, also refers, "Of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, it is written, 'And these three are one' (a unity)." There must be some mystical truth implied in using "three" (Greek) in the masculine, though the antecedents, "Spirit, water, and blood," are neuter. That THE TRINITY was the truth meant is a natural inference: the triad specified pointing to a still Higher Trinity; as is plain also from 1.Johannes 5,9, "the witness of GOD," referring to the Trinity alluded to in the Spirit, water, and blood." - So, its true, that the trinitarian formula is a later inclusion in the Scriptures, but even the short version does not deny the triune God: Vater, Sohn and Holy Ghost. The King James Version, Luther Bible 1545, the Stephens and Scriver versions of "textus receptus" all have the Trinitarian Formula! There is also no reason, why anybody should be absent when one gets baptized. Why should the Father be absent or the Holy Ghost? I agree, that you are not the only one who baptizes in the name of Jesus only. There are many:https://en.wikipedia.org/.../List_of_Christian... - But the point is: What is "baptism"? Baptism is a confirmation, that one has accepted

Bucherer Pianos Jesus Christ into ones life. So, whether you are baptized in the Name of Jesus, or in the Name of the Vather, the Son and the Holy Spirit, actually is the same, since with God (YHWH) the one contians the other. So, Jesus contains YAHWEH and YAHWEH contains the Holy Spirit or even better, Is the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Jesus is Jesus sitting at the right hand of God. So, you can not deny, that Jesus Christ accended to the Vater to sit at his side because the Bible states in to many places, that the Son will sit at the right Hand of YHWH: <http://biblehub.com/luke/22-69.htm> Mark 16,19 say, when Jesus was taken up to heaven:

"19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God." This has been prophesized in Ps. 110,1: The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet. And Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit unto them: "And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost" John 20:22:<http://www.bibleserver.com/text/KJV/John20:22> And when Jesus was baptized, he saw the Holy Spirit decenting on him like a dove. So, the Holy Spirit comes from the Father and from the Son, like affirmed in in the second Nicean Creed: "And in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spake by the prophets." What the creed states, is only why we have seen from the Bible, that both are worhsipped, the Father, the Son, and "from both the Holy Ghost proceedeth". But since the Holy Ghost is LORD, and worhsiped with the Father and the Son. And as they worshipped in Antioch to the "kyrios" - aet YHWH אֱת־יְהוָה, the "hagios pneuma epo" (the Holy Ghost said , the "Ruach ha Kadosch": רוּחַ הַקֹּדֶשׁ)... etc. - So, kyrios, ruach ha kadosch, Lord, God, Vathe - which is all the same! So, if you bapize in all three names or Luke 22:69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God."

Bucherer Pianos of if you patize who contains the Three (Jesus contains YJWH and רוּחַ (Ruach)), it is all the same! The Jesus-Only-Movment believes: "mainstream "Trinitarian" Christians have been misled by long-held and unchallenged "traditions of men", it is not true! I believe also what other Scriptures say, as I have exposed, and not what men say! I have an imagination of Jesus, who says, "who sees me, sees the Father".https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oneness_Pentecostalism I know that in America it is common, that about 1/4th of Christianity, especially believes that. Jehovah Wittnesses do, the Church of Christ does. I met a believing woman where I worked and she said, she goes to the Church of Christ. So, I asked her, so, in this case, you have been baptized three times? She said, yes, why do you know this? I said, this is simple. First you were baptized as a baby, then when you joined the Apostolic Pentecostal Church and when you joined the Church of Christ you were told, that the two baptisms you had, were not valid, since they were not in the name of Jesus only and that you did not believe at that particular moment of time, that you had your sins removed at that particular moment of time! This, I would say, is false teaching, since then, you make baptism into a ritual, of which Paul says, you were circumcised in your heart, so you don't need a circumcisions on your body (in the letter to the Romans, since they were Pagan-Christians). So, if we get baptized with the Holy Ghost before we are baptized, like those in Samaria, it means, that the Grace of God is the only thing we need, and not any superstition into a this-way or that-way formula, which makes the whole procedure of baptism (child-, adult-, believers-, dipping-, half-way-, or entirely, sprinkling-, or pouring-) into a magic thing! We get the heaven without baptism, because Jesus says, that only faith saves. All the washings of the Pharisees were superstitious! So, since the Church stole the right to be the people of God from Israel (Roman Catholics, Protestants, many Evangelicals, Cults, Sects etc.), they believe the sign of the New Covenant is Baptism! And the sign of the Old Covenant is Circumcision! Wrong! According to Darby and many others, there have been different time periods in the history of men with different conditions and ceremonial laws. Jesus has freed us from all the ceremonies! So, baptism is only a surplus we get as Christians. At Antioch it was, that the Nazarene sect of the followers of Jesus first was called Christians! https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nicene_Creed
